NWCA and United States Marines Corps Develop Leadership Program

By Pat Weaver

Leadership is a hot topic in today's ever-changing world. Just within the past year, we've seen people from all walks of life, step into leadership roles to bring us closer together as a nation. Unfortunately, we've also seen the devastating effects caused by a lack of leadership. Leaders taking advantage of their position with reckless abandon have caused companies to fall and lives to be shattered. Never before have the many facets of leadership, both good and bad, dominated the news.

We in the wrestling community understand leadership. The discipline, drive, and desire it takes to wrestle are the same traits that create an exceptional leader. It's not a surprise to find many great leaders
