

Dr. Munday's Vision Becomes a Reality

By Al Fontes

Let's imagine for a moment, or maybe even dream for a while. One day you wake up and take on the day, routine as it may be, a friend and supporter of your already successful wrestling program approaches you and offers to donate a gift of $1 MILLION DOLLARS to your wrestling foundation to build a state-of-the-art wrestling facility for the High School and club programs. Hard to imagine, or even fathom, isn't it? Well, this actually is a true story for San Diego's Poway High School, one of the most successful programs in the state of California.

Thanks to long time supporter and friend Dr. Perry L. Munday, 94, this awesome facility became more than a dream, it became a reality.

It all started over two decades ago in the year 1978 when Poway hired its second wrestling coach Wayne Branstetter, who
