Wrestling Places Two at Penn State Open

State College, Pa. – The Citadel wrestling squad placed two grapplers at the Penn State Open on Sunday. Senior Tyler Sim placed seventh at 125, while sophomore Odie Delaney placed fifth at 197 for the Bulldogs.

Odie Delaney went 5-1, pinning five of his opponents on the way to a fifth place title. He took down Timothy Lutke of Edinboro in just 17 seconds in the final match. Tyler Sim had a record 4-2 on the day, beating Pat Strikzki of Maryland, 7-3 in the final match to take the seventh place title. Hampton Motley, Giuzzi Segarra, Jordan Dix, David Ivashchenko, Nick LaFevre, Mike Fenton, Pierre Frazile, Derek Royster, Zane Newton, Turtogtokh Luvsandorj, Justin Sparrow, Derek Sickel, Mike Hurley, Kelby Smith, Manuel Camargo and Ivan Muller also participated for the Bulldogs.

The Citadel will break from competition for final exams. They return to action on Thursday, Dec. 17 as they host Chattanooga in the Southern Conference opener at McAlister Field House at 6 P.M. For more information on The Citadel wrestling team, visit www.CitadelSports.com.
