

United State Marine Corps Presents: NWCA Building Sport Team Leaders

TGarden; the most famous of sporting venues and televised live to many countries and taped for later broadcast to most others around the world. There were just a few incidents of poor sportsmanship. Unfortunately, American male wrestlers were involved. In one of the worst displays of behavior, an American wrestler who had been defeated fairly, without one call in question and without any apparent action to provoke his own, ran after his opponent and pushed that wrestler hard from behind. There is absolutely no excuse for this behavior. The fact that this behavior occurred in this venue before the eyes of the world reflected badly on all Americans.

It isn't the intention of this author to remove personal responsibility from the athletes who acted out. Their coaches, clubs and USA Wrestling should deal with
