Finally Gone!

Brandy Rosenbrock, of Montrose and Eastpointe, Michigan has graduated and is out of the high school wrestling scene. Brandy won FOUR USGWA National Championships and placed in her 7th and 8th grade years in the high school division. Seems like she'd never be gone. Ditto Laura DiCesare. Laura won THREE USGWA National Championships and was runner-up three times - a six time finalist in the "high school age" division. Also gone are others who because of their high level of talent seemed to be around forever: Californian Sara Fulp-Allen, a two-time National Champ, four time All-American; Hilary Lucarelli of Michigan, a three-time finalist, five-time
