

From Pins to Pen...As I See It

By Wade Schalles

I really hate being the only pair of brown shoes at the black tie dinner. But I must again disagree with wrestling's leadership over what to do and what is being done regarding

Title IX.

Believe me, I've struggled with my feelings over this for years now. There are few in wrestling that believe more than I do about our need to provide a unified front on issues that are common to us all. In the past several years the country's various wrestling organizations and the sport's fans have come together and decided something really special. They have
