

30th Annual Dapper Dan Wrestling Classic

USA Team Defeats PA All-Stars

By Skip Parker
Photos by Ron Garrison

The USA All-Star Team claimed ten of thirteen matches to easily win the 30th Annual Dapper Dan Wrestling Classic 35-9 on Saturday, March 13, 2004.

The best high school wrestlers in the country, Pennsylvania and the state of Texas entertained the 4,000 fans at the University of Pittsburgh. There were several very close, exciting matches throughout the evening but it was the WPIAL Team and the USA All-Stars that showed their superiority.

The USA Team jumped out to a big lead by winning six of the first seven matches. Kyle Turnbull (WV) used an inside trip for 5 points to defeat Gary Mayfield (Hanover) at 112 lbs. Charlie Falck, four-time state champion from Minnesota had all he could handle in AA state champion Joe Kremmer. Falk won 4-3.

At 130 pounds, Nathan Morgan (CA) decisioned Jared Royer (Cedar Cliff) 13-5