

NCAA II Wrestling Coaches Association Announces the 10th Class of Inductees

The Hall of Fame Committee for the NCAA II Wrestling Coaches Association has announced that seven individuals will be inducted into the Division II Wrestling Hall of Fame.

RealProWrestling Sets the Record Straight

Fan favorite and 2004 Olympic bronze medallist Rulon Gardner (commentator) will headline the cast of Olympic wrestlers, including the RealProWrestling coaching staff which includes the likes of Dan Gable (coach, wrestling legend and Olympic gold medallist), Bobby Douglas (wrestling legend and Olympic coach), and Steve Abas (2004 Olympic silver medallist), as they gear up for the inaugural season of the first Olympic-style wrestling league. RealProWrestling, the gimmick-free, script-free Olympic style-wrestling league, was taped in front of a live studio audience on October 8-9 at the Los Angeles Center Studios.

BRUTE Wrestling and the NWCA Create New Fund

In a true spirit of cooperation, BRUTE Wrestling and the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA) are creating a fund to assist collegiate wrestling programs that are in jeopardy of being lost and to help create new ones.

Wrestling Coach at Oklahoma State added, "This is a great opportunity to see outstanding up and coming underclassman and help support college wrestling at the same time. This is a can't miss opportunity for all college coaches."

Blair Academy Wins 25th Consecutive National Prep Title

When the 70th Annual National Prep Tournament commenced inside Lehigh University's Stabler Arena, few pundits, fans or journalists thought that powerful Blair Academy would "NOT" win its 25th title in a row. There were, however, a couple of coaches from Dallas, Texas; who wanted a say in that matter. Those two coaches, also Olympic gold medalists — Kenny Monday and Kendall Cross, brought a tough Bishop Lynch team to Bethlehem (from Dallas) with one thought in mind — to win. Why not — Cross and Monday are NCAA champions and Olympic champions...winning is what they do.

Not so fast. They don't win all the time.
