Tritons and Roadrunners Storm to NJCAA 2007 Titles Moffitt and Iraldi Honored, Elliot is Outstanding

By Johnnie Johnson

ROCHESTER, MN — The snow and the sleet were not the only things that blew through Rochester this weekend, so did Iowa Central and Gloucester. In the aftermath, the Tritons repeated in Division I and Gloucester picked up their first title since 2002 in Division III. Top-ranked Iowa Central wrestling team was dominant as they stormed to their second consecutive NJCAA national title for the first time in Triton history. Iowa Central was also captured the NWCA/Cliff Keen National Dual Champion title in Cedar Falls in January.

"We put the pressure on the guys and prepared them to win," said Iowa Central head coach Luke Moffitt. "They took care of themselves and did all the work. They deserve all the credit for their success."

Iowa Central finished with 154.5 points, outdistancing second-ranked Labette (105) by 49.5 points, No. 7 North Idaho (86.5) finished 3rd, Gloucester (77.5), William Rainey Harper (73.5), Northwest Wyoming (67.5), Clackamas (66.5), and Nassau (59). Gloucester (77.5), William Rainey Harper (73.5), and Nassau finished 1,2,3 in Division III, good enough to go 4th, 5th, and 8th respectively against the Division I scholarship divisions.

The Tritons also had a school-record nine All-Americans from their 10 qualifiers, including four finalists and three national champions.

"The guys took care of business all year long," Moffitt said. "We really pulled together as a team and had great chemistry. We wrestled better than I expected all season long."

Iowa Central had the team title wrapped up even before Joe Soto, the first of their four finalist stepped on the mat. Soto (Porterville, CA), a Sophomore, brought a 25-5 season and a perfect 12-0 JUCO record to the finals along with the #1 ranking. Soto's opponent was second ranked Heinrich Barnes (South Africa) from Northern Idaho, also a Sophomore who brought an impressive 39-3 record and a spotless JUCO record of 21-0 to the finals. Both wrestlers were returning all-Americans from last season, Soto was the consolation champion having placed third and Barnes was fifth in 2006. Although the two top rated wrestlers had not met this season, Soto owned a pair of wins last year over Barnes including a consolation semi-final win by the score of 11-3. But, when it comes to the finals Barnes proved that you can throw previous meetings and rankings out the window as he downed the top rated Soto 13-11 to give the Cardinal a title.

At 149 pounds Iowa Central put out the first of three freshmen to make the finals, top ranked Matt Burns (Urbandale, IA) who was 29-9 on the season and 15-2 against JUCO competition. Burns opponent, another freshman, was Tim Burdine (Brandon, FL) of Spartanburg Methodist College who was 23-7 on the season and 5-0 against NJCAA foes. "Burns wrestled really well the whole tournament," said Moffitt. "Matt came out and took control of the match, he got the takedown and then turned his kid." Burns downed Burdine by the score of 9-3 for the title, and with both wrestlers being freshman look for another great battle in 2008.

The 157-pound title match saw yet another set of freshman set to wrestle for a title, second ranked Nate Carr Jr. (Gray, GA) and fourth ranked Jeb Clark (Spanish Fork, UT). Northwest Wyoming's Clark (27-9) controlled Iowa Central's Carr (35-5/15-1) early in the match, but the Triton battled back for a 3rd period take down to win the title 6-5. Nate put himself in the position to wrestle the other guy's style," states Coach Moffitt. "Nate could have broke, but didn't, he came back in the third period to get the take down and win." Nate Carr Sr., a three time NCAA Division I Champion for Harold Nichols and Iowa State was on hand to witness his son becoming a national champ in his own right.

ICCC's last freshman to step on the mat for the 165-pound finals was top rated Colby Covington (Springfield, OR) where he would face Nassau's third ranked Chris Wade (Islip, NY) a sophomore, both men sported a perfect record against JUCO wrestlers. Covington would prove that his top ranking was legitimate as he majored Wade by the score of 15-3. Coach Moffitt stated, "Covington really dominated the field, and I am not sure he had an offensive point scored on him. With the way he dominated his opponents I thought he would have been a strong contender for the Outstanding Wrestler."

Iowa Central's Terrance Young (125) placed third, while Russell Weakley (133), and Nate Willard (184) each finished fifth. Algona High School graduate Jacob Combs (heavyweight) was seventh, and Kevin Flynn (174) finished in eighth.

On winning their second straight title Moffitt states, "We knew it would be hard to repeat, it was a goal, but we knew we have never repeated at Iowa Central. A lot of our guys stepped up and we had 8 of nine guys attain AA status. All of these guys did a tremendous job and wrestled at or above their expectations."

In just his third year as the headman at ICCM Moffitt earned "National Coach of the Year" honors for the second straight season. Luke states, "It's a nice award to receive, but I have to give a lot of credit to my assistants, the team, former Coach Ostrander, the faculty and administration at Iowa Central."

As far as next season, Moffitt states, "It's an expectation that we have every year, were going to go hard after it (the title) every year, we're going to reload and give it another try." Iowa Central will not have to reload too many weights as the Tritons had seven freshmen in their line-up. So, look for Moffitt and Company to have their sites set on the "three-peat" when the 2008 title is decided again in Rochester, which has been one of the best venues and well run national tournaments.

In other title bouts the greatest challenge would be at 125 pounds where sophomore Tim Elliott (Wichita, KS) of Labette face the only returning national champion in the field, Raymond Stephens (Homestead, FL) of Waubonsee. Stephens was the champ at 133 pounds in '06 and dropped down to 125 this season where he brought a perfect JUCO record to the finals and looked to become only the 52nd wrestler in 46 years to win back-to-back NJCAA individual titles. The second rated Elliott (22-2) had placed 5th at 125 pounds in 2006, and was looking to play the role of spoiler for Stephens and gain his own individual JUCO title. Tim wrestled a very controlled match and found himself controlling the champ in the third period, when at 4:31 in the match Elliott would pin Stephens for the title. Elliot would later be named the tournaments "Outstanding Wrestler" for his efforts in the finals. Labette assistant coach Dustin May states, "With all those college coaches in the stands, Elliot picked the perfect time to shine. Winning the national title definitely helps your stock." Elliott's win also helped his Cardinal team led by head coach Joe Renfro to a national runner-up finish.

Labette would put out their second finalist for the night at 133 pound with second rated Josh Baldrige (Wichita, KS) who placed fourth at the NJCAA's in 2006. Baldrige would match up against the top rated wrestler from Lincoln College, freshman Kenny Jordan (Frankfort, IL) who was a perfect 28-0 on the season. Jordan's perfect record included a previous win over Labette's Baldrige, when Kenny downed Josh by the score of 10-4 on January 20th. Baldrige was able to close the gap from his previous loss to Jordan, but the Lincoln wrestler would stay perfect on the season as he won the title by the score of 9-8 and adding another titlelist for coach Dave Klemm.

Triton's Travis Hammons (Harvey, IL) ranked third at 174 entered the finals with a perfect JUCO record of 15-0 and a season record of 27-2. His opponent, Jesse Linczmaier (Fox Lake, IL) of Harper has dropped three matches this year to Hammons, including the Central District title match. The Triton would make it four in a row as Hammons downed Linczmaier 10-7. Despite Linczmaier's loss, Harper was the runner-up team in the non-scholarship division and Triton placed 5th.

184 pounds would see yet another district finals rematch from the West District finals and a meeting of the top two wrestlers at this weight. North Idaho would send out their second of three finalist in second ranked sophomore Kyle Sand (Arvado, CO) who placed 4th in the NJCAA's in 2006, he would face number one ranked and returning AA Brad Padgett (Buckley, OR) who is perfect on the season with a 25-0 record including a win over Sand in their district finals. NIC's Sand would turn the tables on Padgett in the national finals with a 10-6 victory over the previously unbeaten wrestler from Highline.

NIC would send their third finalist at 197 pounds with seventh rated Evan Mattingly (Vashon Island, WA) with a 15-2 JUCO record, where he would like his teammate Sand, face the a top ranked and undefeated wrestler in Alfred State's Jamie Lockett (St. Charles, MO) 21-0 in JUCO matches, and a returning AA having placed third in 2006.

The Cardinals would go a perfect three-for-three in the finals as Mattingly knocks off yet another top rated wrestler in a close match by the score of 4-3. Mattingly's win would help coach Pat Whitcomb and his NIC team to a third place finish at the NJCAA tournament.

The final weight class to be contested featuring a returning all-American Chris Miller (Bemidji, MN) from Itasca who placed 5th in 2006 (15-3 JUCO) who faced Western Wyoming's third ranked Brandon Rupp (Pocatello, ID) who was 34-9 on the season and 18-1 in NJCAA competition at 285 pounds. Miller would add a title to his fifth place medal as he downed WW's Rupp 6-2. Itasca finished 6th in the non-scholarship division and Western Wyoming finish 7th in the scholarship (Division I) division.

Eastern District Champions, Gloucester, won the non-scholarship title at the NJCAA's and the Roadrunner's head coach Mario Iraldi was tabbed as the "Coach-of-the-Year" in Division III. On winning the title coach Iraldi states, "One of the best feeling in the world, this is our first title and the school's 6th. I'm still flying high. Coach Mike McConville and myself have had some good seasons and finishes, but this is the icing on the cake."

"As a team," Iraldi states, "I think they did great. Seventy-seven and a half points is the second highest point total in school history.

It is also nice that everyone contributed and it was a team effort. When you have no one in the finals, it has to be a team effort." Individually, Mario commented that, "A lot of the wrestlers had a good weekend, but to pick one it would have to be 184-lber Mike Wilcox. He lost his first match and wrestled back 6 straight matches to take third. All 6 wins came with bonus points; Mike had 3 pins, 1 tech-fall and 2 majors. The other good performers were 141-pounder Clint Collins who had to beat the same wrestler two-times for 5th place, with 60 stitches in his head and a sprained ankle. Randy

Moore beat the #1 kid in the country and placed 4th at 157. 174-pounder Brian Boudro also lost his first match and came back to win four matches and place 7th. 197-pounder Mark Peiffer a 2x AA is up a weight class and I felt he gave the champ all he could handle."

In terms of his Coach of-the-Year Award, Iraldi states, "I think any coach who puts a lot of time and hard work in, deserves an award. I have been blessed to have a talented group of wrestlers and a real good assistant coach in Mike McConville. It is nice to have something to look at that will bring back great memories."

Numerous other awards were given out including "Man of the Year" to Jim Ziegler of Northwest Wyoming, the Bruce Traphagen "Fall Award" to Cedric Powell of St. Louis Meramec, 285 pounds (4 falls in 8:37), and the Joseph E. Rockenback "Sportsmanship Award" to Dallas Haesseltine of Harper.

Four wrestlers were inducted into the NJCAA Hall of Fame including Jimmy Johnson of Rochester State Junior College (1966-67), David Mirikitani of St. Louis CC - Meramec (1990-92), Stephen Hughes (1989-90), and Robert Gray (1981-82) both of Lincoln College. A special moment came during the "Hall of Fame" inductions when Ron Mirikitani, the head coach of Meramec and president of the NJCAA and NWCA coaches associations, presented the plaque to induct his assistant coach and son, David. David was escorted by his wife Julia.

Another great NJCAA tournament. Make plans now to attend the NJCAA tournament hosted by Rochester Community and Technical College and the Rochester Amateur Sports Commission in February 2008.
