

Two-time Reigning Pac-12 Champion @ASUWrestling Adds Top-10 Ranked Mason Smith

Retweet | Release

TEMPE, Ariz. – Arizona State head wrestling coach Zeke Jones announces that Mason Smith, the reigning 141-pound Midlands champion, will join the Sun Devil squad in 2018 as a transfer.

Smith was ranked No. 13 in the final individual ranking of the 2017-18 season and ranked as high as No. 6 earlier in the year. He was the No. 10 seed at the 2018 NCAA Wrestling Championships and is a two-time NCAA Qualifier.

The 141-pounder comes from Central Michigan University where he finished his sophomore season with the Chippewas with a team-best 31-5 record, qualifying for NCAA Championships. At NCAA's in 2018, he earned a first round victory over a ranked opponent in No. 23 Thomas Thorn from Minnesota.

READ FULL RELEASE ON THESUNDEVILS.COM

Mollie Hanke

Assistant Media Relations Director
(Triathlon, Wrestling, Swim/Dive, W.Golf)

Sun Devil Athletics
Arizona State University
o: 480-965-6594
c: 859-948-4472
thesundevils.com
@molliek88