Dear Lanny:

In between our new quarterly newsletters, we at Beat the Streets will be sharing important news that occurs within the organization to keep you all up-to-date.

Since our Summer Newsletter in June, we have had a major change on our coaching staff. Emma Randall, a regarded member of the United States women's wrestling community and a former National team coach, joined Beat the Streets in July as our new Girls Development Director. Emma will look to continue the progress of Jacquie Davis, who provided extraordinary service to BTS and the girls wrestling community at-large over the last five years.

Emma has hit the ground running and we are excited to see the impact she will have on our student-athletes and off the mat. You can read more about Emma's background HERE.

In addition to our emails, you can keep up with all things Beat the Streets by connecting with us on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.

Thank you so much for your belief in Beat the Streets!

Sincerely,

Brendan Buckley
Executive Director
