

COUGARS START 2-0 IN FIRST HOME CONTESTS

Oregon City, OR- The Clackamas Community College wrestling team started the season off with a bang winning 20 straight matches in their first two duals of the season and outscoring their opponents 102-0 in team score to begin the dual meet season. The Cougars beat upstart Umpqua in the first of two contests 56-0 winning by bonus points in all but one match and followed that up against Cerritos College, out of California, taking 7 bouts by bonus point margins.

Next up: Clackamas travels to Pacific University for the Mike Clock Open to take on a host of teams from the west coast with action beginning at 9:00 a.m.
