Princeton, NJ - The Hofstra Wrestling team kicked off the 2018-19 season Sunday at the Princeton Open at Jadwin Gymnasium.

Fifteen Pride wrestlers, including eight who wrestled attached to Hofstra, competed in the tournament. Freshman Dylan Ryder, who was wrestling unattached, placed eighth at 125 pounds with a 3-3 record. Six more Pride grapplers posted .500 record as redshirt freshman Trent Olson at 133, redshirt sophomore Ricky Stamm at 165, freshman Trey Rogers at 184, redshirt senior Nezar Haddad at 197 and sophomore Zachary Knighton-Ward at 285 each recorded 2-2 records. Redshirt junior Omar Haddad was 1-1 at 285.

There was no team scoring in the tournament.

Hofstra will return to action next Sunday, November 11 when the Pride travel to the Capital District for the Journeymen Northeast Collegiate Classic in Albany, New York. The tournament begins at 9 a.m.
