

Gilman Makes United States World Team

LINCOLN, Neb. -- University of Iowa All-American Thomas Gilman won the 57 kg bracket at the United States World Team Trials on Saturday and will represent Team USA at the 2017 UWW World Championships Aug. 21-26 in Paris, France.

Gilman, a three-time All-American from 2015-17, defeated Tony Ramos, 2-0, in the finals to make the United States World Team. He went 5-0 in the tournament, defeating Darian Cruz (9-0), Tyler Graff (1-1), Nico Megaludis (11-0), and Nathan Tomasello (6-2) to reach the finals.

Gilman joins a Team USA roster that includes Nick Gwiazdowski, Logan Stieber, James Green, Kyle Snyder, J'den Cox, Zain Retherford, and Jordan Burroughs.