JAPAN-USA PROTOCOL AGREEMENT INTERNATIONAL CULTURAL EXCHANGE

September 11, 2015
Las Vegas, USA

Agreement of protocol between Japan and the United States concerning the national cultural exchange program between high school age wrestlers in the sport of wrestling.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

(1.1) The goals of this program are to develop long-lasting friendships and understanding among our students, teachers, and the general public; to gain an appreciation of the cultural similarities and differences between our great nations; to exchange technique and training methods and to help promote the development of wrestling among the youth of our communities.

(1.2) This protocol applies to the annual long standing amateur wrestling exchange of high school age wrestlers that first began in 1962. All other exchanges will be decided upon by our respective national governing bodies on a case by case basis.

DATES

(2.1) The exchanges shall be conducted on an annual basis with a minimum of 10 nights and a maximum of 14 nights being spent in the host nation.

(2.2) The exact exchange dates will be established one year in advance.

(2.3) A quadrennial rotation calendar will be maintained by mutual agreement that identifies the hosting USA states and the hosting Japanese blocks of prefectures.

(2.4) Host nation will designate cities of arrival/departure in its letter of invitation.

(2.5) USAW agrees to create a historic national rotation and protocol (HNR&P) committee composed of participating states. Washington will host an annual planning meeting for the USA side (HNR&P Committee). The Japan side is automatically invited to attend and participate. These dates are target dates only and are subject to change based on WSWCA calendar, membership needs and hotel.

- (6.7) Sending side agrees to select all members of its delegation at least four (4) weeks in advance. Selections can be made earlier. As soon as possible, the (1) names, (2) selection tournament weight class, (3) team photo sheet, (4) rankings, (5) biographical information and (6) team function will be electronically sent to the hosting side.

HOSTING RESPONSIBILITIES

- (7.1) At least four months in advance, electronically send the name and contact information of each local organizing committee chairperson that is responsible for hosting on a day by day basis in each state/prefecture.
- (7.2) Hosting side agrees to have a representative for all arrivals and departures at the designated cities and whenever transfers are made by traveling team.
- (7.3) Hosting side decides which states/blocks (groups of prefectures) will host. The sending side agrees to accept the decision of the hosting side.
- (7.4) Upon arrival in the designated city, the hosting side shall provide all domestic transportation, room, board, cultural and sightseeing activities during the visit of the sending side.
- (7.5) Hosting side will purchase insurance coverage for the teams and their hosting activities, if necessary.

SENDING RESPONSIBILITIES

- (8.1) Two weeks before departure the weights of the wrestlers will be sent to the hosting side.
- (8.2) The sending side shall assume all costs for its own domestic transportation and international air tickets to/from the cities designated by the hosting side.
- (8.3) The sending side shall purchase adequate health, medical accident, repatriation and liability insurance coverages for its team members.
- (8.4) Hand carry their national flag and anthem for ceremonial use.
- (8.5) Team leader will hand carry a brief written speech for ceremonial use.

BASIS

This exchange is based upon the principle of 50-50 and takes into account the differences in size, distances and differences of our nations. We follow the guidance of the United World Wrestling as the international governing body for the sport of wrestling.

AMENDMENT

If any disagreement arises concerning any article of this protocol, the agreement should be settled by discussions between the two parties. We envision that improved communication via the creation of the HNR&P Committee structure will improve mutual communication and understanding between our two national wrestling bodies.

Japan and USA agree to review protocol each summer Olympic year.

Respectfully submitted 11 September 2015
