Twin Brothers Troy and Ty Wilson Transfer to Lourdes to Wrestle

Head coach Dock Kelly III has announced that Troy and Ty Wilson will transfer to Lourdes University this fall to continue their wrestling career with the Gray Wolves.

The twin brothers arrive from Kansas Wesleyan University, where they both wrestled for the Coyotes last season. The natives of Puyallup, Wash. Both wrestled in high school at Rogers High School.

“I recruited both Troy and Ty heavily out of high school, and so I’m glad that things worked out for them to join our wrestling program,” Kelly stated. Although they are twins, their style of wrestling contrasts greatly on the wrestling mat. Both of them are tremendous competitors, and I look forward to having them on campus this fall.”

Troy went 6-11 as a freshman at Kansas Wesleyan, wrestling at 157 pounds. As a high school grappler for the Rams, he was a two-time South Puget Sound League champion, and the league’s Most Valuable Wrestler in 2015. He finished runner-up at the state championship in 2015 and finished third in 2014. Troy posted a 95-16 record during his prep career.

Ty also wrestled at 157 for the Coyotes last season, finishing with a 19-12 record. He became the first Kansas Wesleyan wrestler to qualify for the NAIA National Championships, and also won his weight class at the Kansas Collegiate Athletic Conference Invitational. As a high school wrestler at Rogers, Ty was a two-time SPSL champion, finished second in the state as a senior, and posted a 124-17 record.

Both Wilson brother plan to major in nursing upon their arrival at Lourdes.
