Hunter Yackee to Transfer to Lourdes to Wrestle This Fall

Hunter Yackee will transfer to Lourdes University this fall and wrestle for the Gray Wolves, head coach Dock Kelly III has announced.

A native of Wauseon, Ohio, Yackee competed in open events for Kent State University during the 2018-2019 season, posting a 3-7 record.

“Hunter is an elite level wrestler who will impact and elevate our wrestling immediately,” Kelly stated. “His work ethic is off the charts, and his wrestling IQ will positively impact our wrestling room. We are thrilled to have Hunter join our wrestling program.”

Yackee was a four-year state qualifier for Wauseon High School, finishing third at the Ohio state championships twice during his prep career. He was also a district champion and a three-time section titlist. In addition, Yackee won three Northwest Ohio Athletic League titles for the Indians.

A multi-sport athlete, Yackee also played football at Wauseon.

Upon arriving at Lourdes, Yackee intends to major in business administration.
