Lycoming wrestling announces incoming class

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. – Paced by five state qualifiers, two state placewinners and three 100-match winners, 28th-year head coach Roger Crebs will welcome 10 new wrestlers when the Lycoming College team begins practice in October, he announced on Thursday, July 1.

The full class features a well-balanced spectrum, as the 10 wrestlers can represent the Warriors in eight weight classes.

The Warriors had just two seniors on the active roster during the 2020-21 season that was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, returning five starters from 2019-20, when the team finished 12-5. The team has enjoyed 27 winning seasons during Crebs' Hall of Fame tenure.

Lycoming will enter 2021-22 needing just seven wins to become the fifth program in NCAA Division III history to claim 800 dual-meet wins, joining Springfield, Wilkes, Wartburg and Olivet.
