

Mentally Preparing for the Freestyle/Greco Season

Hello Coaches, Parents & Wrestlers,

As the regular season has come to an end and the Freestyle/Greco season is upon us, athletes and coaches are always looking for ways to gain an edge on their competition by seeking out new cutting edge training philosophies to help them reach their maximum potential next season.

Dedicated wrestlers of all ages are currently seeking out coaches to assist in their technique, strength training and nutritional development. However, after a loss wrestlers and coaches still typically blame their poor performances on at least one of our most common Mindset Red Flags listed below:

- * Not Pulling the Trigger/No Killer Instinct
- * Practice room wrestler
- * Gives good opponents too much respect
- * Choking in big matches
- * Slow starter
- * Too cautious/hesitant
