FOX FINISHES SEVENTH

One of just three unseeded All-Americans in the tournament

ST. LOUIS - Knocking off four seeded wrestlers in a three-day span, redshirt sophomore Paul Fox placed seventh at 157 pounds, Saturday, at the 2017 NCAA Wrestling Championships at the Scottrade Center.

Fox, who was unseeded entering the tournament, scored three takedowns in the opening period against 14th-seeded Sal Mastriani of Virginia Tech in the seventh-place bout. Leading 8-4 after the second, he added another takedown and a reversal in the third, while finishing with 1:44 of riding time.

A native of Gilroy, California, Fox became the 10th underclassman in program history to reach All-America status on Friday night. He is one of just three unseeded All-Americans in the 2017 tournament, finishing the season at 29-15. Fox is now 51-22 in two seasons on The Farm.

Stanford set a program record with nine NCAA qualifiers in 2017.
