

The COMMUNITIES of IDAHO must speak up - Their political representatives in the legislature & IHSAA have voices against injustice & unfairness.

Some thoughts about push-back from the wrestling communities and schools of Idaho.

Develop a long term plan & strategies as well as an immediate response. UO wrestling alumni missed internal Duck litigation deadlines. Unite the communities as there is strength in numbers. Remember that you are not alone & that it might be a long war, so use your existing community based structures for fundraising and legislative support. Organize and unify ALL wrestling organizations and concerned individuals to create a state, district and community network for communication, leadership and self-governance.

Get celebrity speakers to draw media attention for public awareness. Interview Bronco team members for their personal stories and feelings.

The communities of Idaho want wrestling kept in its educational system to benefit their boys and girls. We ask that the Boise State decision be reversed. Further study will lead to a better solution for the citizens of Idaho and their neighboring states of Montana, Washington & Oregon.

The Montana Wrestling Convention will be held in Billings Oct 6-7 where the Buckley family can provide a report on what's happening next door.
