Double-Header Kick-Off with 4,500 Wrestlers at Freakshow & Monster Match...

We added another hall with 9-more mats to bring this annual sold-out tournament to an even 3,000! Age groups will wrestle both days and both age groups will weigh in on Friday. We look forward to the changes and we are anticipating them to be well embraced by those in attendance. We also increased our hotel rooms by 350 to allow more attendees the experience of where you weigh, wrestle and win.

A Colorado sell-out for the past 5-years. 1,500 wrestlers and 30-states are in the normal attendance that kicks off the wrestling season in the Rocky Mountain Region. Come and lay it on the line where the best-of-the best compete and attempt to win the first leg of the RMN Events special awards. One-day, 22 mats, The biggest trophies you will see any tournament offer. Women's division, Open division and K-12 are featured with bounce houses for the rest, don't miss the Monster Match Nationals, expected early sell-out.

The Grand Canyon Nationals is back. When you mix one of the most popular areas in the country, Scottsdale, Arizona offers a great place to visit and compete. Held during the Thanksgiving holiday, there is nothing better than spending time with the family and then inviting all of your guests to see some action at the state-of-the-art venue West World. No better place to be, come to Arizona and take your best shot at winning a Championship belt.

Who's Bad? This is the event that gets the cobwebs off from the holidays. The Who's Bad? National Classic traditionally attracts more than 20-states with very stiff competition. Last year we utilized 22-mats and finished the 1,200 sell-out tournament in a timely fashion. Introducing newly designed championship belts this year, you will want to train extra hard to bring this one home. Registration is open today, see you on December 30, 2017 at the National Western Complex.

One of our most exciting first-year tournaments we have ever planned. Partnering with Disney, Buca di Peppo, Bubba Gump and Knotts Berry Farm, the USA Showcase is set-up to become a mainstay in California. The 1984 Olympic wrestling championships were held in the same arena and you will be competing at the same venue. The arena, city and surroundings are a top notch beautiful place to hang out with your team, coaches and family. We encourage you to consider getting your tickets early before you get left out...
