

Jordan finishes incredible career as four-time All-American

Ohio native will go down as one of most prolific UW wrestlers

On the Web: <http://go.wisc.edu/7o6gb6>

ST. LOUIS -- Isaac Jordan, a four-time All-American and two-time Big Ten Champion, wrapped up his illustrious career as a Wisconsin wrestler by finishing in fourth place at the NCAA Championships.

Jordan easily took his first win of the day to put him in the third-place match. In a rematch of the All-Star Classic, Jordan took on Missouri's Daniel Lewis and handily defeated him with an 8-1 decision. Jordan had a good shot early in the second minute of the first period taking down Lewis and nearly pinning him. He collected four nearfall points to give him a 6-0 edge headed into the second period.

Lewis rode out the entire second period, diminishing Jordan's 1:53 of riding time and was awarded a penalty point after Jordan was called for stalling. However, with a neutral start in the third, Jordan held Lewis off the entire period until clinching one final takedown in short time.

Up against Michigan's Logan Massa in the third-place bout, the duo faced off for the fourth time this season. Massa got things going early and took a 7-1 lead after the first period. After a scoreless second period, Massa tallied an escape and takedown midway through the third and Jordan managed to record an escape with 20 seconds remaining. With Massa's 11-2 major decision, Jordan finished in fourth place to claim his fourth-straight NCAA podium finish.

Notes To Know:

- Jordan finishes his career with a 115-17 record and went 27-6 in his senior campaign.
- With a .871 career winning percentage, Jordan ranks sixth all-time in program career winning percentages.
- Jordan is just the fifth four-time All-American in program history.
- Jordan's 115 career wins tie for eighth in program history.

Kelli Grashel

Assistant Director of Athletic Communications | University of Wisconsin

Softball, Wrestling, Women's Soccer, Men's Soccer, Women's Basketball

608-445-4086