Four Lourdes Wrestlers Earn NAIA Scholar-Athlete Honors

Lourdes University had four student-athletes named NAIA Scholar-Athletes in men's wrestling the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) has announced.

Jimmy Balazy (Parma, Ohio/Padua Franciscan H.S.), Derick Coleman (Clyde, Ohio/Clyde H.S.), Joe Dreisbach (White Lake, Mich./Walled Lake Northern H.S.), and Carter Kroll (Ontario, Ohio/Ontario H.S.) all earned the honor for the Gray Wolves.

Balazy has been honored for the third time in his career while Coleman and Dresibach received the honors for the second time in his career. Kroll is a first-time recipient for Lourdes.

More than 200 student-athletes throughout the NAIA were named NAIA Scholar-Athletes this season in men's wrestling.

In order to be nominated for the award, a student-athlete must maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale, must appear on the eligibility certificate for the sport and have attended one full year at the institution.
