Crebs earns Most Falls Award, four Warriors place at NCAA Southeast Regionals

YORK, Pa. – Four Lycoming College wrestlers found their way to the podium on Saturday, Feb. 25, to cap the team's season at the NCAA Southeast Regional. Junior 141-pounder Wiley Kahler (Pottsville, Pa./Nativity BVM) led the Warriors, finishing fourth, junior 197-pounder Gable Crebs (Montoursville, Pa./Montoursville Area) took fifth, first-year 149-pounder Korbin Karper (Boiling Springs, Pa./Boiling Springs) sixth and sophomore 125-pounder Kaden Majcher (Turbotville, Pa./Warrior Run) seventh.

Crebs earned the tournament's award for the Most Pins in the least amount of time, as the junior decked four opponents in 9:07.

Kahler posted two first-period takedowns and accumulated more than three minutes of riding time to down Marymount's Mateo Hernandez in the consolation quarterfinals, reaching the semifinal against fourth-seeded Mark Samuel of Roanoke, where he posted a takedown, two reversal and a four-point near fall in the first period to take a 10-6 lead before scoring a four-point near fall in the second period and a takedown in the third to notch a 17-12 decision. In the third-place match, he faced third-seeded Avery Leonard of Alvernia, who posted a 9-5 win to advance to the NCAA Division III Championship. Kahler finished his junior year with a 27-11 record.

Crebs opened his second day of wrestling with his fourth pin of the tournament, getting a takedown in the first 30 seconds before decking King's Rich Fronheiser in 1:44 before facing Alvernia's Mauro Pellot in the consolation semifinal, where he dropped a narrow 2-1 decision, getting in on a single with 30 seconds left, but was unable to complete it, to move into the fifth-place match, where he notched a 7-3 decision over Delaware Valley's Daniel Eckley, finishing the year with a 34-5 record.

Karper fell into the consolation bracket with a 3-2 setback against second-seeded Hai Siu. Each of the grapplers had an escape in the second and third periods. Siu was able to get the match-winning takedown with a minute left in the period. After a 6-3 setback to fifth-seeded Chance Babb of Alvernia, he faced Jaryn Hartranft of Wilkes, falling 3-1 in overtime, finishing his rookie season 23-8.

Majcher moved into the seventh-place match after falling to York's fifth-year senior Jared Kuhns. He garnered an 8-3 lead in the match before reversing Adrian Samano and pinning him in 5:38 to finish his sophomore year 26-9.

The Warriors finished the 2022-23 season with a 10-5 record under 30th-year head coach Roger Crebs.
